

Work passes | Employment practices | Workplace safety and health | Statistics and publicationseServices | Calculators | Forms | Newsroom

Employer's guide: migrant domestic worker

This guide aims to help you build a positive working relationship with your migrant domestic worker (MDW). It includes information on rest days, well-being, salary and other matters.

Rest days, health and well-being

Guidelines for an MDW's rest days and well-being, including accommodation and safety.

Contracts and safety agreement

Signing an employment contract and safety agreement with your MDW.

Salary guidelines

Guidelines for paying your FDW's monthly salary.

Resolving disputes

How to get help if you have a dispute with your FDW or employment agency.

Abuse and ill-treatment

Employers will face severe penalties if convicted of abusing an FDW.

Employment rules

Where an MDW is allowed to work, including penalties for illegal employment or deployment.

MDW interview

What to expect if your MDW is selected to attend an interview with MOM.

MDW house visit

What to expect if your MDW is scheduled for a house visit by MOM.

Sending an MDW home

Steps to take to send your MDW home when employment ends.

Overseas leave for MDWs

Overseas leave for MDWs, including home leave, levy waiver and what to do if they don't return.

When employers can be debarred

Find out when an employer can be debarred from employing FDWs.

