Eligibility for Training Work Permit

You can apply for Training Work Permits for eligible foreign trainees to go for practical training in Singapore. The number you can hire is limited by a quota, and you may have to pay a levy for them.

Who is eligible

As an employer, you can apply for a Training Work Permit (TWP) for:

- Semi-skilled or unskilled employees from related overseas companies to undergo training in Singapore.
- Foreign students studying in educational institutions in Singapore. The training must be part of their course requirements.

All Training Work Permits are valid for up to 6 months.

Note

Successful workers will also need to meet vaccination requirements to get their pass issued.

Levy and quota

If you are bringing in employees from overseas or hiring foreign students on a TWP:

- You need to pay basic tier, higher-skilled monthly foreign worker levy for your sector.
- The number of TWP holders you can hire is capped at your company's foreign worker quota for your sector:

Security bond

You need to get a security bond for each non-Malaysian TWP holder.

Note

A medical examination is not required for TWP holders.
