Frequent changes of MDWs

If you have changed migrant domestic workers (MDWs) multiple times within a year, you have to meet certain requirements before you can employ another worker.

You are a Frequent Change Employer if you have changed migrant domestic workers (MDWs) multiple times within a 12 month period. You have to meet certain requirements before you can employ another worker.

If you are employing your 4th MDW within a 12-month period, you will be required to attend a classroom Employers' Orientation Programme (EOP) or attend an interview with MOM, as stated in the letter sent to you before we process your application. You cannot appoint a representative to attend on your behalf.
